

COUNCILLOR MANDATORY TRAINING

2024

Section 5.127 of the Local Government Act 1995 requires local governments to report on the training undertaken by council members during the financial year.

Councillors must complete a training course titled Council Member Essentials that consists of five modules. This training is to be completed within twelve months of being elected to Council.

The table below outlines the status of mandatory training undertaken by Council members.
